You need to look up some data on an existing record.

The last creature entered in the NSIS dataset had some verbatim data regarding its occurrence depth. Can you tell us what that is?
(Note: exact data will be absent; we want to know if you'll find the field)

You've realised your next list of occurrences exceeds 10 sightings. Maybe you should contact someone about this in order to prevent filling out the same form 10 times?